An Epochal Dispersion

The land that comprises Engadine Farm, in the Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina has become so valuable for other than agricultural purposes, that Mr. Everett has sold it at a large price and now is compelled to dispose of his great herd of Scotch Shorthorns.

The number of cattle to be sold is not large, as Mr. Everett had consented to consign cattle to a combination sale just before he sold his farm and he has lived up to that agreement. But those cattle which are left are the cream of a herd that was assembled, without regard to price, for the purpose of building the best herd ever owned in the South. How close he came to a realization of this ambition may be surmised when it is known that in 1924 he had the champion show herd of the South winning 26 championships and 71 first prize ribbons. Nearly all of the cattle that composed that winning herd are now in the herd that is for sale and are producers of calves of equal merit with themselves.

Last year the herd was shown with great success in both Northern and Southern states.

This catalog lists a great herd of cattle, built on a foundation of the best cows of a few great families, and strengthened by the use of the best bulls that money could buy and that good judgment could select.

It will be noticed particularly that the great sire Maxwalton Romper 941317 is in his prime; that all of the other bulls that are to be sold are his sons; that eight of his daughters sell as single lots and that most of the young calves beside their dams are also his get. The seven sons of this bull consist of winners of championships, tried and proven sires, and unusually promising prospects. And his daughters are as good as his sons. Maxwalton Romper is by the noted Rodney (imp.) and he is out of Maxwalton Mina 2d. the dam of the great Browndale. He is in type, character, and quality, and as a sire, one of the great bulls of America.

The history of the breed is that our greatest herds have been built upon foundation stock and with bulls secured at dispersions of such herds as this one. Those who will take advantage of this great opportunity to buy foundation females and stock bulls will have taken the first step towards building successful herds and acquiring fame and fortune in the cattle industry.—Will Johnson of The Shorthorn World.

Guarantee, Terms and Conditions

1. Proper care shall be given by purchaser to protect breeding qualities and health of animals.

2. All bulls guaranteed breeders. A bull shall not be allowed to serve when under fourteen months of age or be allowed to run with herd when under twenty months of age.

3. Cows sold with calves by side are considered proven breeders. All other cows and heifers sold as a single lot, except those maintained for show purposes, are guaranteed breeders, except calves sold by side of dam as one lot, and heifers under sixteen months of age at time of sale. Heifers shall not be served for first calf by heavy or old bull. Cows and heifers over three months gone in calf, according to service date furnished at time of sale, but not proving in calf, must be reported to seller within three months from date of sale; all others served within three months of date of sale not proving in calf or not settled, must be reported within six months. Heifers not settled when twenty-two months of age shall be promptly reported. Heifers over sixteen months of age sold open, not settling within six months of date of sale shall be promptly reported.

4. In case the animal proves to be not a breeder according to the above guarantee, then the purchaser shall have purchase price refunded without interest. Salvage to go to the seller.

5. All animals are sold subject to a sixty-day retest for tuberculosis, or to comply with laws of state into which they may be shipped. Animals shall be segregated from buyer's herd until retest is made, except herd be a Federal accredited one. All tests for tuberculosis, either test before sale or retest, shall be made by a Federal or State veterinarian or veterinarian deputed by State veterinarian, who is co-operating with Federal veterinarian and qualified to do accredited herd testing. Purchase price is to be promptly refunded upon proof of re-action. Salvage to go to the seller.

6. Certificate of registry and transfer will be furnished with each lot sold. Shipments will be made as soon as possible after close of sale and without trouble to the purchasers, but at their risk of loss or injury.
